If you have any questions, please contact your local Renishaw office.

To activate a new licence, you have two options depending on whether your computer system is connected to the Internet:

Online activation (with Internet connection)

1. Plug the dongle into your USB port.

2. Select the Activate tab.

3. Enter the licence Activation ID, your name, and contact details.

4. Click Activate. Information about your licence is displayed in the Manage panel on the Dongle licences screen.

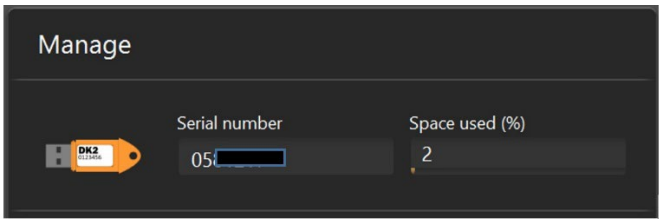
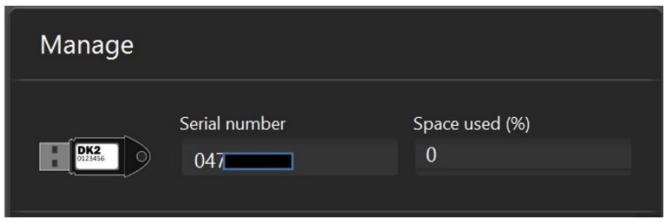
NOTE: A Renishaw MODUS™ 2 licence cannot be activated from a black dongle.





Manual activation (no Internet connection)

NOTE: You will need a second computer system that is connected to the Internet with Renishaw Licence Manager already installed.

1. Note the serial number on the dongle.
2. Open Renishaw Licence Manager on a second computer system with Internet connection.
3. Select the Activate tab.

4. Enter the licence Activation ID, your name, and contact details.
5. Click Export.

6. Enter the dongle serial number. Confirm the serial number. Click Export.

7. Save the exported file and transfer it to the offline computer system.

8. Open Renishaw Licence Manager on the offline computer system.

9. Select Dongle licences.

10. Plug the dongle into the USB port.

11. Select the Import licences tab.

12. Click browse .

13. Import the folder with the dongle licence that you transferred from the first computer.

14. Select the licence file that now appears in the window and click Apply.

15. Your activated licence is displayed in the Manage panel.
